Letter from the Community Services Department Director

Happy Holidays to all our residents and peace and good fortunes to a Happy New Year!

Can't believe 2016 is coming to an end. We had such a great year and great time providing programs and services for all of you to enjoy.

But we are by no means done, and have lots of great events coming up. Check out the back of this guide for our highlighted special events and try to join us; especially, the opening of our newest park in Mountain View, No. 38, the Heritage Park, located at 771 Rengstorff Avenue. Scheduled opening is Saturday, December 10, at 11:00 a.m.

Don't wait until January to start a New Year's resolution. Get out over the holidays and walk or run through our parks and trails. Sign up for a class or event. Enjoy some time for you and your family.

Lastly, see pictures below; we were recently honored in St. Louis, Missouri at a national conference with 7,000 other Parks and Recreation Professionals, where Mountain View Parks and Recreation was recognized as a Gold Medal Finalist for Excellence in our field.

We love what we do and hope you continue to enjoy our programs, events, facilities and services.

See you in the parks!

Waitlist • Drats! You were this close to getting in! Your name will be placed on a waitlist if your first and alternate class choices are full. Just so we're on the same page, if your class starts on Monday, your last day to withdraw is the Monday before that class. You will be assessed a $10 processing fee per visit.
- Missed a class? • Unfortunately, no refund or make-up classes will be issued for any missed activity.
- Class already started but can I still join? • Yes! We do not prorate any of the days that have already taken place, though. You just need to catch up with everyone else at the next class!

World Premiere Shows for Stories on Stage

During its 25-year history, PYT has brought more than 40 world-premiere stage plays to the MVCPA SecondStage as part of its innovative "Stories on Stage" program. Showcasing well-loved and award-winning children's literature, "Stories on Stage" adaptations are a low-cost way for families to introduce their children to theater through stories familiar to young audiences.

Special Friday morning performances are designed so that teachers can bring their students to the performance and discuss the books presented with their class afterwards. Following each performance, the director and actors participate in a talk-back session so families can ask questions about the book and the performing process.

In 2017, "Stories on Stage" features a full roster of titles that were adapted for PYT and debuted on the MVCPA stage, including world premiere adaptations of Riding Freedom by Pam Munoz-Ryan, The Talented Clementine by Sara Pennypacker and Royal Princess Academy: Dragon Dreams by local author Laura Joy Rennert, which is being adapted for the stage by local teen Jordan Rosenberg.

Learning Stagecraft

In addition to performances, PYT offers classes and camps throughout Silicon Valley. Classes at their Mountain View studio are available for ages 3.5 and up and include "Story Stretchers" and "Broadway Babies." PYT's "School Play in a Box" program takes the show on the road, providing more than 50 on-site school plays each year.

Shoreline connects your home, work, and school to outdoor areas and area destinations via Stevens Creek Trail, Permanente Creek Trail, Hetch Hetchy and a portion of the S.F. Bay Trail. Why not get involved as a Trail Ambassador volunteer, and become an example of trail etiquette, all the while educating trail users, and serving as extra set of eyes/ears for our rangers as well as city staff?

At the historic Rengstorff House, you can step back in time and enjoy a historic home tour, Tuesdays/Wednesdays from 11:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m., or Sundays 1:00 – 4:00 p.m. Have you got a passion for storytelling, and want to help ensure docent-led tours for years to come? Then sign up as a volunteer Docent, and become part of Mountain View's unique history for future generations to enjoy. The venue serves as a fine wedding and event venue on other days of the week.

Admire and identify birds; boat, kayak or wind surf along the lake; dine at the various food and beverage outlets; or enjoy a round of golf at Shoreline Golf Links, all located within Shoreline's boundaries. For information about ways in which you can engage and enjoy all that Shoreline has to offer, call us at (650) 903-6073 or email shoreline.volunteer@mountainview.gov.
